

This country was built on the freedom of speech. Media mergers limit the freedom of the media on what stories to cover and it also limits what we, the people, read, hear and watch. Our democracy is at risk. Please take actions that will ensure competition, local accountability and diversity instead of limiting it.